Volume XIV

ELM CITY HIGH SCHOOL
Elm City, North Carolina

"Your Treasure Chest"

Make for yourself a treasure
chest,
But not for gems and gold -
Fill it with things more rare
and fine,
As full as it will hold.

Into it place your kindly thoughts,
Of friends whom you hold
dear,
The classes, the teachers, the happy hours
That fill your life with cheer.

And then if dark days come along,
And your bright prospects
mar,
Open your treasure chest
and see
How very rich you are!

3 Key Clubbers Attend Convention

George Varnell, John Farmer, and Frank Eason attended the Carolina's District Key Club Convention in Charleston, S. C., on March 7, 8, and 9, accompanied by Mr. J. C. Winstead. John was elected to the district office of Lt. Governor.

Pictured in the lobby of the Francis Marion Hotel in Charleston are Mr. J. C. Winstead, George Varnell, and Frank Eason.

George and John take a break after a busy day of meetings.

Science Symposium

A group of students attended the Science Symposium held at Duke, State, and Carolina on May 7, 8, and 9. The event was sponsored by the Rotary Club.

The girls attending the Science Symposium were: Ann Webb, Judy Tomlinson, Susie Durham, Mrs. J. B. Farmer (advisor), Cindy Proctor, and Ann Davis.

Visiting State College during the Symposium were: Frank Eason, John Farmer, George Varnell, Carl Pennington, and Billy Winstead.

High School Day at East Carolina

On April 4, Bobby Cobb, John Farmer, Joe Owens, Wilbur Johnson, Linda Gardner, Mary Lee Winstead, Gloria Faircloth, Susie Durham, and Sheila Page enjoyed the hospitality of East Carolina College. The program included educational exhibits, open house in many of the departments and musical selections presented by the band, choir, and orchestra. Of particular interest to the girls was a style show held in Austin Auditorium and for the boys there were physical education activities and varsity baseball practice. A dance in Wright Auditorium ended a very enjoyable day.

Carolina Moon, keep shining, Shining on the one who waits for me.
 Carolina Moon, I'm pining,
 Pining for the place
 I long to be.
 How I'm hoping tonight
 you'll go,
 Go to the right window,
 Scatter your light,
 Say I'm all right;
 Please do!
 Tell her that I'm blue
 and lonely,
 Dreamy Carolina Moon!

Key Club

Several Key Clubbers loading food and presents for needy family at Christmas.

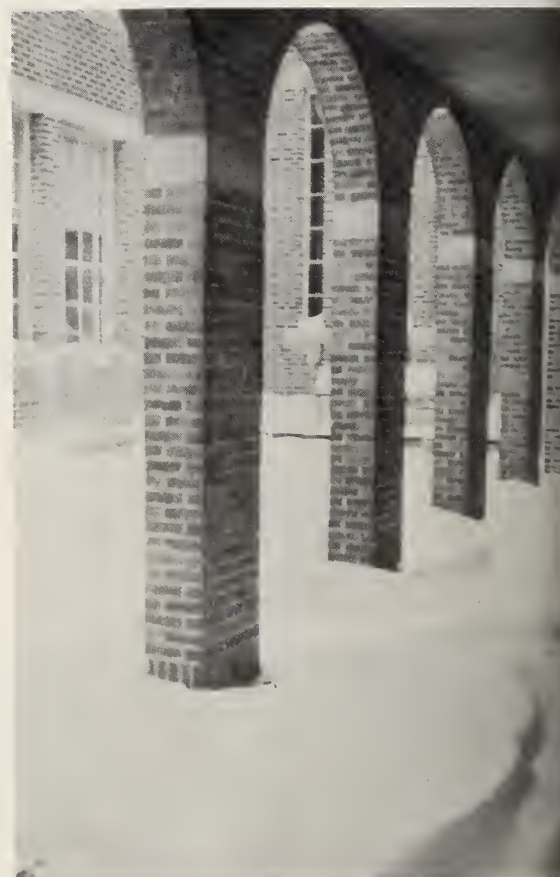

The Key Club and some of their friends sang Christmas carols at the T. B. Sanatorium during the holidays.

The Seniors will well remember that important day when they chose their invitations.

Oh! Those crazy times we had on the bus after a basketball game!

Big snow brings unexpected holidays.

To a sweet girl, may you always remember that dance at the Breeze.
Donald Everett

I sure, I've enjoyed being in school for many years and I've grown to love to associate with the many young people here. May a sweet, cute girl who remembers me to be the fair and true marriage partner.

Dear Cuz,

I'd better hurry and get this signed before the bugs eat me up. We sure have had fun messing around this year... such as riding horses, trying to play duets, etc. Well, next year at this time I hope I won't have to ride a horse for my transportation. If I am lucky at getting my license.

I sure am looking forward to camp this summer. We really had a ball last year! I hope a lot of the same crowd go that went last year. (You know who I mean).

To a real sweet gal who I wish all the happiness and success in the world.

Love ya!

Mary Lynn

Dear Laura,

I have really enjoyed knowing you these past year. Especially at camp. I want to wish you the best of luck with "Mark".

I want to wish you all the success in the world.
